

Now Accepting Volunteer Member Applications for the District IV Citizen Review Panel

What is the District IV Citizen Review Panel ?

The District IV Citizen Review Panel (CRP) is comprised of up to seven volunteers that reside within the boundaries of the public health district. There is a CRP established in each of the seven public health districts in Idaho.

What is the purpose of the CRP ?

The purpose of CRP is to evaluate and provide recommendations for the improvement of the child protection system within its respective health district.

What does the CRP do ?

Each CRP is tasked with reviewing all cases brought under the Child Protective Act that have been open in the corresponding district court, or other appropriate local jurisdiction, longer than 120 days.

Every three months the Panel provides formal recommendations for the improvement of the child protection system, to the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare and the Child Protection Legislative Oversight Committee.

What is the CRP looking for ?

The District IV CRP seeks people from all walks of life with varying levels of experience. The goal is to create a diverse panel of volunteers with an interest in the welfare of children and families.
